

Essay 1

According to Woodson and Baldwin, how has the American educational system historically been inadequate for African American students?

To what extent does the inadequacy hold true today? What progress has been made, and what further improvements need to be made?

Use specific citations from the texts to support your argument.

4 pages due Saturday, February 16 at 5 pm